PURDUE
UNIVERSITY
FORT WAYNE

Calling all High School Students in Northern Indiana!

Here's your opportunity to earn three college credits through Purdue University Fort Wayne for your work in the Junior Achievement's Financial Literacy course.

How it works:

- Take the Financial Literacy Course offered by Junior Achievement.
- Achieve the proficiency threshold on assessments that meet Purdue University Fort Wayne's academic standards.
- Submit your application: 2025 PFW JA Financial Literacy Program Application
- Your parent/guardian completes the permission form.
- Pay a $40 processing fee and receive 3 college credits for BUS 26000, Personal Finance, General Education and Indiana CTL course.
- Apply by January 16, 2026, if you completed the Personal Finance course and took the test by December 2025.

Why this matters:

- Build a strong foundation in personal finance—an essential life skill!
- Begin your college journey early, saving time and tuition.
- Gain recognition for your hard work and determination.
